Please inform the Abergavenny Writing Festival immediately should your en-try be published or win a prize elsewhere.

Can you tell a story in one hundred words? Can you make your words strong?
Can you make your words heard?

Can you speak from the heart? Can you tell a truth about how you see life? Or perhaps, how life sees you?

Write us a story. A narrative. An imagining. Paint us some words, perhaps bold and bright.

Type us a tale that sticks like glue...

Can you tell a story in one hundred words? Your words of power? Words have power! Why not?

Smile, ink and apply.

Here's a hundred just done – done in a flash!

“Never do anything by halves if you want to get away with it. Be outrageous. Go the whole hog.” Roald Dahl, Matilda

Eligibility

- Prizes are open to writers of any nationality writing in English or Welsh, and open to entrants from Year 3 up to Year 13 residing or attending schools in Powys / Monmouthshire / Torfaen during the academic year 2018/2019.
- Entries must be entirely the work of the entrant and by submitting you are confirming that the work is your own. Any evidence to the contrary will result in immediate disqualification.
- Entries written by students under the age of 14 at the time of submission must be emailed in by a responsible adult / parent / carer. Please see the entry form.
- Entries must never have been published, self-published, published on any website, blog or online forum, broadcast nor winning or placed (as in 2nd, 3rd, runner-up etc) in any other competition.
- If your entry has been longlisted or shortlisted in other competitions and provided it has not won a prize or been published, then it is eligible for a prize with the Abergavenny Writing Festival.
- Simultaneous submissions are allowed but will become ineligible should they win a prize or be published prior to the prizegiving date.

Entry Format

- Entries must be in English or Welsh.
- Flash fiction to be double-spaced and a word count noted at the top of the first page.
- The filename of online entries must be the title of the entry and it must be either a .doc, .docx, .rtf, .wps, .pdf or .txt file. Include the title on the entry form please!
- Entries are not returned, you need to keep a copy.
- Amendments cannot be made to entries after they have been submitted, nor substitutions made. If entrants wish to correct errors they must submit a new entry, marked 'Final Version' on the title page, and enter again. No correspondence or discussion about amendments will be entered into.

There is no fee for entry to this competition. Entrants may submit up to two pieces.

Be a part—take part! Sharpen your pencil and GO! You never know...
